

OBRC Rare Bird Report

Date received: Monday January 9, 2012
Received from: Stu Mackenzie [smackenzie@birdscanada.org]
<<mailto:Stu%20Mackenzie%20%3Csmackenzie@birdscanada.org%3E>>
IP Address: 64.136.119.151
<<http://cqcounter.com/whois/?query=64.136.119.151>>

Reporting Observer

Name Stu Mackenzie
Address PO Box 160
City Port Rowan
Province Ontario
Postal Code N0E 1M0
Email smackenzie@birdscanada.org
Phone 519-586-3531

Original finder's name and address if known John Lamey
Other observers' names and addresses Denis LePage, Ron Ridout, Matt
Timpf, Adam Timpf

Report Details

Species,select one: Kirtland's Warbler
or other species not on list:
Number 1
Age second-year
Sex male
Date you saw it using this format: 25 January 2010 11 May 2011
Time of day seen 1300
Duration of observation (give times) 1300 to 2000
First and last dates bird(s) known to be in area 11 May
Exact location seen
GPS if available
Habitat Scot's Pine Plantation
Weather conditions
Kind of lighting on bird
Observer's distance from bird 5m
Optics used
Photographs taken? Yes
Video taken?
Illustration made?
Date this report written 9 January 2012

General Observations

1) Circumstances of the observation John Lamey discovered the bird around 1100. Reported it to the Old Cut Field Station around 1200. DL, RR, and SAM, rediscovered the bird around 1300. It was observed periodically until 2000 that evening.

2) Description.

3) How were similar species eliminated?

4) Experience with claimed species

5) Field guides/references consulted

6) Any additional commentary/analysis

Description made from Field Notes